COURSE SUMMARY

The Certificate II in Salon Assistant (SHB20216) is the entry level qualification for the hairdressing industry.

The qualification prepares students to provide assistance to hairdressers in a salon environment. Course units include elements of styling, basin services, applying colour and completing in-store operational, and sales duties.

Upon successful completion, VET graduates will receive a nationally recognised qualification that can be used to seek employment, and may be eligible for RPL (recognised prior learning) credits if they continue studying at Certificate III level.
